

Call guideline for annoying telemarketing calls and phone surveys.

Created by tellows.com -

The free reverse phone lookup for phone and mobile phone numbers

If the caller would like to know, why you ask him so many questions:
I am really interested in you and would like to get to know something more about you.
Therefore could you please answer my questions?

If the caller does would not like to answer any question:
You want me to answer your questions. First you answer mine!

If the caller complains about your questions:
I am sorry, but you called me and you wanted to speak to me. I am surely allowed to ask you a couple of questions in order to get to know you a little better.
So if you don't get along with this, you should stop calling people and perhaps you should think about choosing another job.
